

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Ike and Elsie Locke began the celebration of life together as husband and wife in Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Four; and,

WHEREAS, Their marriage has spanned sixty-five years of service and devotion to their family, friends and neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Ike and Elsie Locke have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, On July 2 in Flandreau at the Second Presbyterian Chapel, there will be an occasion of great joy and celebration as friends and loved ones gather to honor Ike and Elsie; and,

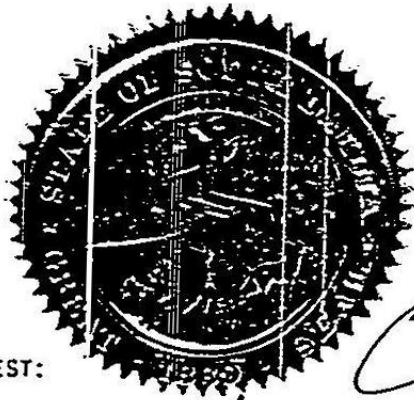

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the State's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 2, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

ATTEST:

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
